

Personal Profile Project

Junior Level

Specifications	Value
Use the Personal Profile template in Word to make a Web page according to the following specifications: • All of the personal information must be filled in and spelled correctly. • The template must be saved as a Web page and the file name changed from personal_profile_template.htm to personal_profile_(your first name).htm.	$.05

Intermediate Level

Specifications	Value
Use the Personal Profile template in Word to make a Web page according to the following specifications: • All of the personal information must be filled in and spelled correctly. • The existing font must be replaced with two different fonts: one for the headings and a different one for the personal information. • Three more categories must be added to the "Where I Like to Go on the Internet," "Biographical Information," and "Personal Interests" sections. You must fill out your personal information for these new sections. • The template must be saved as a Web page and the file name changed from personal_profile_template.htm to personal_profile_(your first name).htm.	$.10

Senior Level

Specifications	Value
Use Word to make a personal profile Web page according to the following specifications: • Your page must contain the following information about you: - o Your name - o Where you live - o Your phone number	$.15

- o The things that you like - o The things that you like to do - o The things that you are good at doing • The information on your page must be organized in a way that makes it easy to find information quickly. • You must have at least 250 words on your page. • All of the personal information must be filled in and spelled correctly. • Your page must have a background color. • You must use two different fonts on your page. • The two fonts must be displayed using two different colors that are easy to read with the background color you have chosen. • Your work must be saved as a Web page with the file name in this format: personal_profile_(your first name).htm.
---	--