

The Boy Who Turned Green

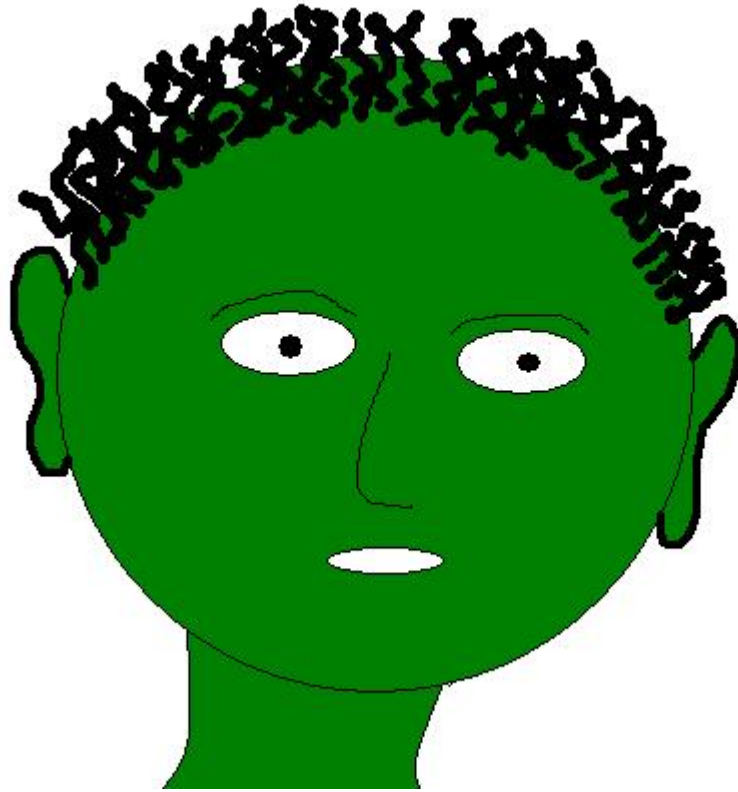

Once upon a time, a little boy woke up one morning only to discover that he had turned green.

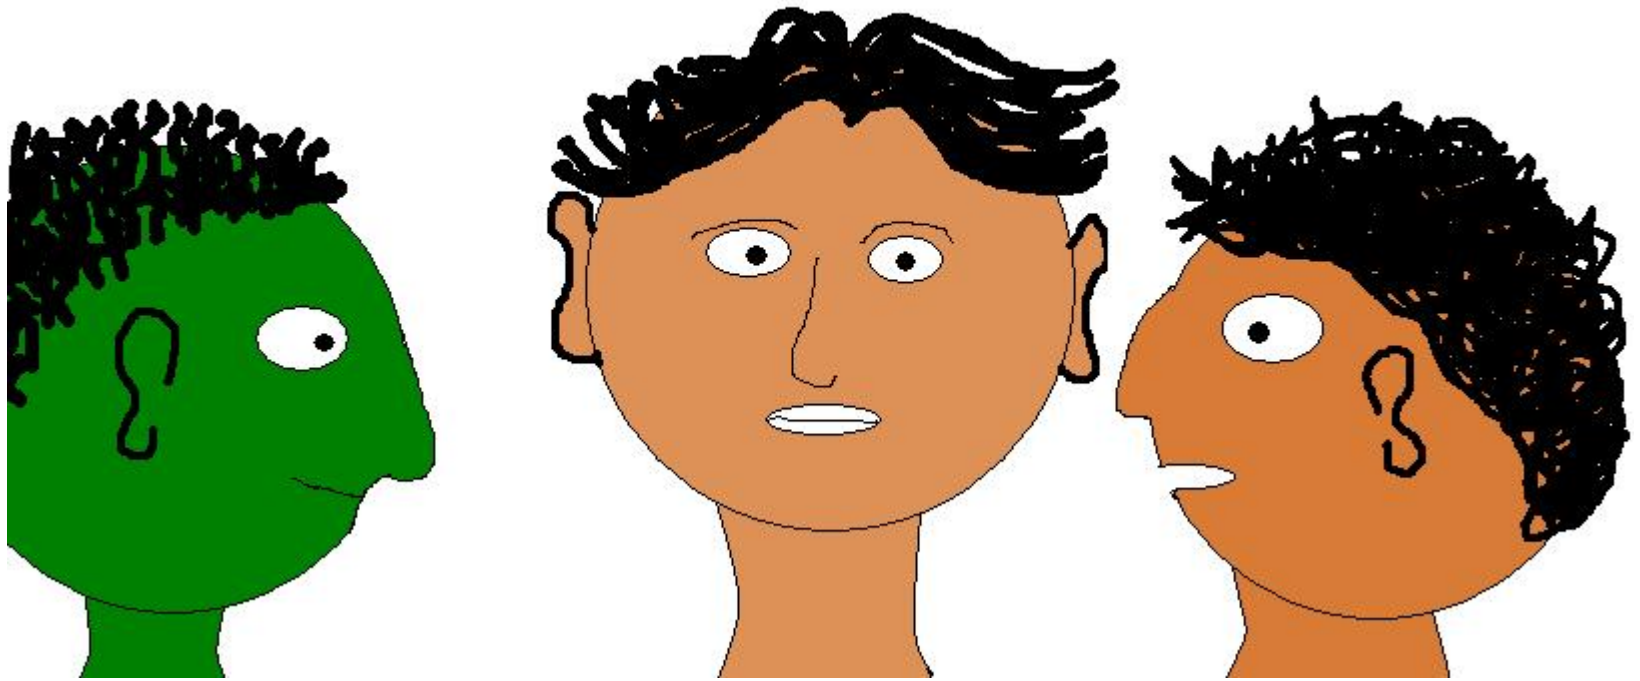

“Oh, no!” his sister said when she saw him. “They will never let you go to school looking like that!”

“What in the world am I going to do?” cried the boy.

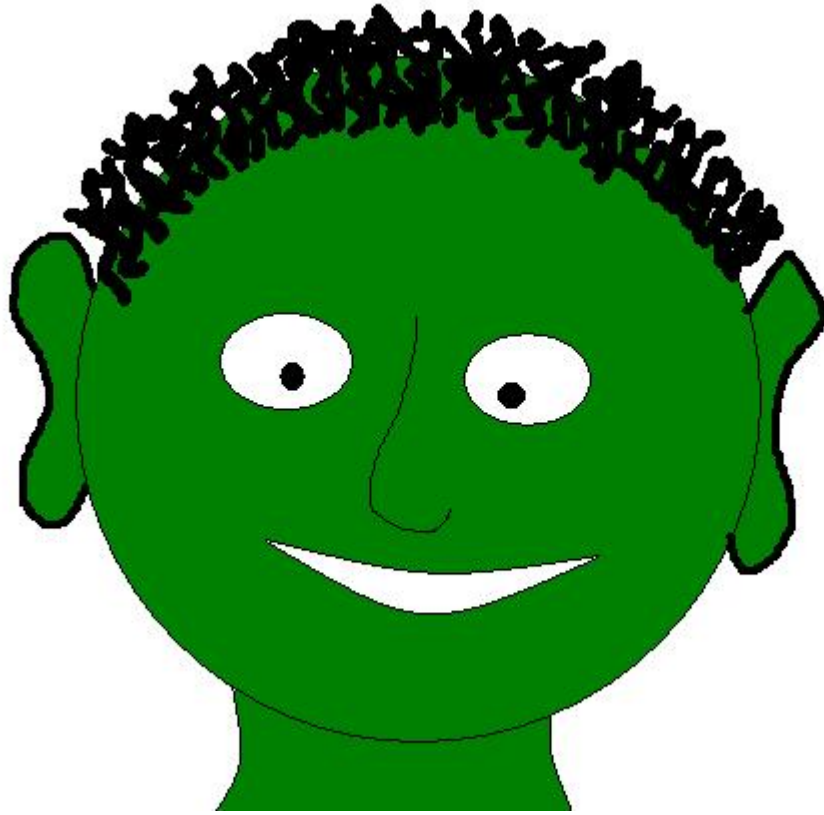

“Well,” his sister replied, “I guess you are just going to have to get used to being green.”

“I suppose you are right,” said the boy. “Anyway, there is nothing I can do about it now.”

So the little boy and his sister went to school as usual. Of course, everyone was surprised at first to see that the little boy had turned green. But after awhile, they got used to it; and by the end of the day, nobody even noticed.

In time, the little boy got so used to being green that he could not even imagine himself being any other color.
